

Caring together

Get inspired by Ilaria de Barbieri, our Executive Committee Member and her story as an EDTNA/ERCA Volunteer

We asked Ilaria de Barbieri, our Nurse who has been a Member of EDTNA/ERCA for 13 years about the benefit it brings to everyone involved of being a Volunteer.

'What would you like to say to other Members who consider to become an EDTNA/ERCA Volunteer?'

"Great experience. You have the opportunity to know nurses from all over the world."

Volunteering is generally considered as an unselfish activity and is intended to promote goodness and improve human quality of life. And this is true and at the same time, in return, your volunteering will generate a feeling of self-worth and respect.

To perform volunteering at EDTNA/ERCA is also well known for professional skill development, to meet new friends and colleagues and also allow yourself to have some fun. Volunteering for us at the Association have positive benefits for you as a Volunteer as well as for the persons or communities served and involved in your activities. Join us today – Become a Volunteer!

Ilaria de Barbieri
Executive Committee Member

'So Ilaria, why did you decide to become a Member of EDTNA/ERCA?'

"A friend of mine was a member and she involved me in the Association activities."

'Why did you decide to become a Volunteer?'

"Because it's exciting to be a part of such a big international nurse association. This opens your mind for the professional and personal life."

'What was your first assignment as a Volunteer?'

"Italian co-editor of the JoRC."

'What would you like to say to other Members who consider to become an EDTNA/ERCA Volunteer?'

"Great experience. You have the opportunity to know nurses from all over the world."

'What is your best memory or impression you have about EDTNA/ERCA?'

"To meet every year colleagues across Europe."